

Landing Pages, and Links for posting Micro-blogs PLEASE ADD YOUR ENERGY TO OUR SITE. These are "Link-in" tools that anyone can use.

- They are made up of a teaser sentence and a link to the appropriate "landing page" (204 on this pdf).
- Each pair is a Twitter post, or Facebook post or any micro-blogging social media site etc. etc.
- Just keep this pdf on your desktop, and when on Facebook, make one post at the beginning and one at the finish of your session.
- Cycle these posts through your sites at whatever rate you desire, and bring your friends into our party.

Remember this is a toolbox for communication, and not a good way to link to and surf webpages. For surfing these pages, it is kind of "pot luck", because I sorted them on purpose in a random order, so that consecutive posts would not all be by the same teacher. The numbers are just for your reference, (so that you can keep track of which was your last post). Lots of links, not because I am suggesting a very big job, but so you don't have to repeat.

You can also cruise the links and watch our Youtube videos. Make a comment on the ones you like!
Please help us spread the word by posting a sampling of these links on any micro-blogging site that you have, and THANKS!
